

The right to free access to information, from all points of view, is one of the fundamentals upon which our nation was founded.